

Remarks/Arguments:

Claims 51-74, presented hereby, are pending.

Presented claims 51-74 correspond to claims 50-73 presented in applicants' Amendment filed June 1, 2004 (the "previous Amendment"), respectively.

The claims are renumbered, hereby, in order to advance prosecution, since it is required in the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment. Nonetheless, the Notice may well be in error.

As explained in the previous Amendment, the claim numbering presented, thereby, reflected correction of an error in the numbering of the claims in the Amendment filed before the previous Amendment. There was no claim numbered "31" in the Amendment filed before the previous Amendment (claim "32" immediately followed claim "30"); therefore, the claims that were (incorrectly) numbered 32-50 should have been numbered (correctly), claims 31-49.

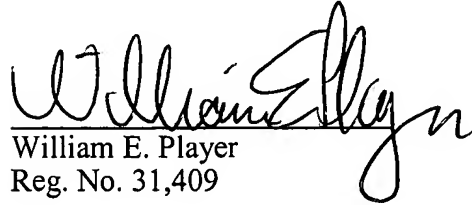

The new (replacement) claims submitted in the previous Amendment correctly began with the next number (i.e., 50) higher than the highest number of the claims, as correctly numbered (i.e., claim 49), presented in the Amendment filed before the previous Amendment. Accordingly, prior to the previous Amendment, claim 50 appears not to have "already been presented," statements to the contrary in the Notice, notwithstanding.

Favorable action is requested.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOBSON·HOLMAN PLLC
